

2008 Basketball SIG Annual Meeting Minutes

July 10, 2008 ~ 12:00-1:00pm

Bally's Las Vegas Room #6, Paris Hotel, Las Vegas, Nevada

Meeting Called to Order

- Executive Council Chairman Joel Raether welcomed everyone in attendance and discussed the agenda for the meeting and asked members to introduce themselves and what position they currently occupy.
- There were 20 members in attendance from five different countries.

Annual Report Overview

- Joel introduced executive council members Carmen Bott and Charlie Weingroff.
- Joel shared that the wishes of the SIG to host a pre-conference symposium for the 2009 National Conference was entered into the proposal process and the outcome of the proposal would be determined at a later date.
- The issues of the SIG chair meeting were shared by Joel and opened to discussion with the group. Such issues creating minimum Executive Council member criteria, SIG representation at the exhibit hall social each year to encourage new membership, as well as increasing exposure and networking capabilities within the group.

General Business

- Joel introduced Carmen Bott who presented a short program on her research work with regards to agility training.
- This discussion opened the floor to everyone in attendance and various issues with regards to basketball training were covered.

New Business

- A motion was set forth by Joel Raether to nominate Duncan French as an International Liaison for the SIG. This nomination was voted upon by the members and passed unanimously.
- Patrick Dixon (St. Johns University) discussed the success of the basketball specific conference that was hosted by North Carolina State and a way that the SIG could add exposure to this event in the future and work to involve the SIG with the event in the future.

Closing Remarks

- Joel thanked everyone for their attendance and expressed the need for the group to continue to grow and increase its activity in the future.
- The group was well represented and the input from the members was fantastic. The outlook for the upcoming years appears to have great opportunity for the group and the willingness to assist the Executive Council by those in attendance was well received.
- Joel also especially thanked Russ Malloy for his attendance to the meeting as a former Executive Council member.

Meeting was adjourned.